

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

APPLETON PAPERS, INC.
and NCR CORPORATION,

Plaintiff(s),

Case No. 08-C-16

V.

HEARING MINUTE SHEET

GEORGE A. WHITING PAPER COMPANY,

Defendant(s).

Hon William C. Griesbach, presiding.

Deputy Clerk: Cheryl

Type of proceeding: STATUS CONFERENCE

Court Reporter: 020608

Date: February 6, 2008

Time Concluded: 2.13 pm

Appearances: Plaintiff: Linda M. Doyle for Appleton Papers, Inc. via telephone
✓ J. Ric Gass for NCR Corporation + Andrew Schlickman
Defendant: ✓ Philip A. Munroe for George A. Whiting Paper Co.

Comments:

Ric Gass presents background on this case & related case.
Mr. Gass suggests remaining parties be added by end of February 2008. It estimates approx. 30 additional def's.
Mr. Gass suggests all parties be added by 03-04-08, responses due by 3-24-08 with proposed scheduling to court by 04-14-08. Defs will most likely run into conflict of interest issues re: obtaining local counsel.

Parties foresee this case going to trial. Case would most likely have to be tried in Milwaukee. Parties anticipate 10-12 parties at trial. Trial estimated to last approx. 6-8 weeks.

Mr. Munroe has no concern re: additional parties, but the

Appleton Papers, et al
v George A. Whiting Paper Co

08-C-16
02-06-08

Schedule would not account for cross claims and counterclaims + involvement of insurance companies.

Mr. Doyle wants to consult with client.

Mr. Schlickman states they are ready to move case forward. Mr. Schlickman comments on Gladfelter (Adelman case); Consent decree issue is separate from allocation issue.

Mr. Gass States... crossclaims & counterclaims will all be part of the same issue.

Mr. Munroe expresses concern re: response time.

Mr. Schlickman clarifies terms of motion
Court grants motion. Parties will submit proposed order.

Court grants motion that was filed today - 2-06-08.

...
It may add additional parties by 3-04-08 w/o leave. Responses due by 3-24-08.

Parties will submit report by 04-14-08.

Scheduling Conference is set for April 23, 2008 at 9:30am parties shall appear in person.